

Johns Hopkins Women's Center for Pelvic Health

4940 Eastern Ave.
Baltimore, MD 21224
(410)550-4406

Dear New Patient:

Thank you for making an appointment with the Women's Center for Pelvic Health at Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center.

Pelvic floor disorders, including problems with the bladder, vagina and bowel, are quite common. In fact, many women suffer from multiple pelvic floor problems, and their symptoms can be quite complex.

Enclosed in this letter is a questionnaire. Please fill out this questionnaire before your visit and bring it with you. If you have any relevant medical records, including reports from previous surgeries or tests, please bring them to your appointment.

Because of the time it takes to park and register for your visit, please arrive at the Bayview Campus 30 minutes prior to your scheduled appointment.

Thank you again for your appointment, we look forward to meeting you.

Most Sincerely,

Grace Chen, M.D.
Assistant Professor
Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology

R. Duane Cespedes, M.D.
Associate Professor
Department of Urology

Leise Knoepp, M.D.
Clinical Instructor
Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology

Victoria Handa, M.D., M.H.S.
Associate Professor
Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology

Dianne Oleksiuk, C.R.N.P.
Certified Nurse Practitioner
Department of Urology

Tola Omotosho, MD
Assistant Professor
Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology

E. James Wright, M.D.
Associate Professor and Chair
Department of Urology

Erica Azizollahoff, DPT
Female Pelvic Floor Specialist
Department of Rehabilitation

Laura Scheufele, PT
Female Pelvic Floor Specialist
Department of Rehabilitation